

Chalk Creations

Today we are looking to go outside and get creative.

With chalk in our hands and our imagination working at full speed we are off to create some pavement art.

Please provide your child with the large pavement chalk (available at most shopping centres) for your child to participate in this activity.

